Want to be a gold star reader and get a prize?

Complete a total of five activities listed below and mark them on your reading log:

Read books. List each title on your reading log.
Read one hour. List book from which you read.
Visit the library once a week. We hope you come more often, but you may add one visit per week on your reading log.

Bring your reading log to the library when you have listed five activities to get a cool Frisbee!

Prizes available beginning June 21st.

"Read-To-Me" with Reggie
Little ones can get in on the fun, too. Parents, grandparents, or other caregivers may register them and then read to their children. Just list the title of each book read on the reading log and when you’ve read at least five, bring your reading log to the library to get another free book!
