

FIRST REGIONAL LIBRARY Application for Borrower Card

This application must be completely filled out and presented to a staff member with acceptable proof of your name and address in order to obtain a borrower's card. The card issues may be used at any branch of the First Regional Library. The Library reserves the right to refuse a card if insufficient information is available, or if fines owed on a previous card are not cleared. Presenting false or misleading information may result in permanent loss of borrower's privileges. Parents or guardians registering children under 18 must themselves be eligible for a card (i.e., you must live or work within the counties served by the First Regional Library).
